HI SCHOOL HI LIGHTS

By MURIEL BELL.
Dot Chandler, Earl Tavan, Bill Barnes and Rudolph Huber are going to Long Beach to attend a convention for high school scribes at the Polytechnic high school. When they come back they will be expected to write an account of the meeting, which will probably sound as if they had been at four different meetings instead of one. It must be a treat for these students to go so far away from home.

All you runabouts who want a permanent hall pass like Fred Marsteller's, can earn one the same way he did. Fred is manager of the S-B store which places on him many duties that calls for a lot of running around at all times. Now don't crowd. Your application will be received in order.

In a meeting of the Varsity Club last week the members decided that the Christmas dance being given by the G. A. A. was all right, so they voted to give the girls all of their support.

The faculty must appreciate the new tables they have in their dining room because they are buying tablecloths for the tables. The laundry men are expecting a big business from the teachers.

After a stage of tonsillitis, Jane Roberts is glad to be back at school. About nine days in bed made Jane very glad to get up and come back to study her A B C's.

What a peppy vaudeville, the G. A. A. and call turned out to be. There were dancing girls, pirates, music and everything. LaGretta Hall is quite the berries when it comes to singing, with Dot Chandler plucking at the ukulele strings. Josephine See and Audrey Clark are sure swell country kids, that is if they do their dance too. The other girls on the program added a bit of color to the performance, which was a great success.

Have you ever seen any red and grey dogs? Well we have some at the school. They have big floppy ears and oh, those eyes. Their feet are like a horse's, but little black patent leather boots make them look very attractive.

Tomorrow five girls will go to Lincoln High school and attend a Girls' League convention. Betty Jane Ripple, Dot Eshom, Loma Kizer, Rita Lister and Muriel Bell are the representatives chosen from this school.

The Girls Glee Club did their best to entertain the Rotary club last Thursday, by serenading them. The songs they sang were "The Weaver," "Caprice," and "Waiting at the End of the Road."

FIVE YEARS AGO IN TORRANCE

As Told by the Files of This Paper

Work on the new Christian church building started Monday, J. A. Davidson is superintending the construction and W. W. Johnston is directing the finances. Members of the church are making liberal subscriptions to the building funds and many who are not members are donating their cash or labor, according to Rev. Lingenfelter.

Everybody has promised to be careful that no fires will be started next Saturday night, when the annual ball of the Torrance firemen takes place at Moose hall.
